PURPOSE

Students will study advanced repertoire including but not limited to musical theatre, opera, jazz, and other vocal genres while using proper singing technique and incorporating acting, dance, and stage movement. The purpose of this ensemble includes: promoting a better understanding and appreciation for different styles of music, providing positive rehearsal and performance experiences for its member, and representing and enhancing the public image of South Plains College.

PERFORMANCES

- This ensemble will perform throughout the semester at events including Concerts and at SPC recruitment performances at various High Schools throughout the area.

METHODS OF ASSESSMENT OF LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Performances, preparation, and attendance will serve as assessments of individual student growth.

COURSE MATERIALS

- Binder for sheet music
- Pencil
- Water

GRADING

Grade will be based on attendance, preparation and participation in rehearsals and performances.

REHEARSAL ETIQUETTE:

An ensemble can only succeed with positive involvement from every member of the group. You Are expected to participate in all rehearsal activities and please do not leave the rehearsal unless you have an emergency. Cell phones should be put away for the duration of rehearsal. Be courteous and respectful to the other member of the group.

ATTENDANCE

If you are ill or there is an emergency, it is your responsibility to inform the instructor BEFORE class time. The student may be administratively withdrawn from the course when absences become excessive.

PREPARATION AND PRACTICE

Students are expected to rehearse music outside of class time and come prepared to each rehearsal.

“To become really good at anything, you have to practice and repeat, practice and repeat, until the technique become intuitive.” – Paulo Coelho

ILLNESS

If you are sick, please take proper safety precautions in order to not spread illness. Please self-assess symptoms of Covid-19 and see statement below.

COVID-19 STATEMENT

If you are experiencing any of the following symptoms, please do not attend class and either seek medical attention or test for COVID-19.

- Cough, shortness of breath, difficulty breathing
- Fever or chills
- Muscles or body aches
- Vomiting or diarrhea
- New loss of taste and smell

Please also notify DeEtte Edens, BSN, RN, Associate Director of Health & Wellness, at dedens@southplainscollege.edu or 806-716-2376. Proof of a positive test is required. A home test is sufficient but students must submit a photo of the positive result. The date of test must be written on the test result and an ID included in the photo. If tested elsewhere (clinic, pharmacy, etc.), please submit a copy of the doctor’s note or email notification. Results may be emailed to DeEtte Edens, BSN, RN at dedens@southplainscollege.edu.

A student is clear to return to class without further assessment from DeEtte Edens, BSN, RN if they have completed the 5-day isolation period, symptoms have improved, and they are without fever for 24 hours without the use of fever-reducing medication.

Students must communicate with DeEtte Edens, BSN, RN prior to their return date if still symptomatic at the end of the 5-day isolation.

STUDENT CONDUCT

○ ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

- It is the aim of the faculty of South Plains College to foster a spirit of complete honesty and a high standard of integrity. The attempt of any student to present as his or her own any work which he or she has not honestly performed is regarded by the faculty and administration as a most serious offense and renders the offender liable to serious consequences, possibly suspension.
- CHEATING: Dishonesty of any kind on examinations or on written assignments, illegal possession of an examination from the textbook or from the examination paper of another student, assisting others to cheat, alteration of grade records, illegal entry or unauthorized presence in an office are examples of cheating. Complete honesty is required of the student in the presentation of any and all phases of coursework. This applies to quizzes of whatever length, as well as to final examinations, to daily reports and to term papers.
- PLAGIARISM: Offering the work of another as one’s own, without proper acknowledgement, is plagiarism; therefore, any student who fails to give credit for quotations or essentially identifiable expression of material taken from books, internet resources, encyclopedias, magazines and other reference works, or from the themes, reports or other writings of a fellow student, is guilty of plagiarism.

DIVERSITY STATEMENT

In this class, the teacher will establish and support an environment that values and nurtures individual and group difference and encourages engagement and interaction. Understanding and respecting multiple experiences and perspectives will serve to challenge and stimulate all of us to learn about others, about the larger world and about ourselves. By promoting diversity and intellectual exchange, we will not only mirror society as it is, but also model society as it should and can be.

DISABILITIES STATEMENT

Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric, or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Disability Services Office early in the semester so that the appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodations must provide acceptable documentation of his/her disability to the Disability Services Office.
